Creating Career Choices

Key reasons why using a recruitment agency works!

Recruiting effectively means a lot more than just placing an advert on jobs boards / advertising in local media. Social media has changed job seekers approach to finding work. Time and money matter to all of us, consider best how to mind both when you know you need to add a star candidate to your organisation.

Recruitment takes time, by using an agency to source Star Candidates you can focus on your own business.

An established agency that is respected by candidates will have a large database of candidates registered. These candidates may not know your company or appreciate your company culture but by partnering with us we can represent you well.

Experienced recruiters (with HR background and education) are better trained and have more experience in interviewing and screening candidates.

Minimum risk – Star Recruit offers a highly competitive rate of 8% flat fee on all salary levels

We can offer guidance on salary rates, what is happening currently in the jobs market, where the talent gaps are.
